

European Views of the United States

Edited by HANS-JÜRGEN GRABBE on Behalf of the European Association for American Studies

The book series European Views of the United States, established in 2008, is published under the auspices of the European Association for American Studies. The EAAS was founded 1954. It is a confederation of twenty-two national and joint-national associations from thirty-five countries, representing a total membership of about 4400 scholars. Since 1957, the EAAS has published collections of articles that originated from the best papers presented at its biennial conferences. In 2010, the Rob Kroes Publication Award was initiated to publish outstanding monographs in the fields of literary, cultural, or historical American Studies. With the EVUS series, the EAAS offers a publication venue for research concerned with phenomena or events that focus on what is now the United States of America. It also welcomes comparative and international studies that fall within these guidelines. EAAS members interested in publishing their work in this series should get in touch with the editor, Prof. Dr. Hans-Jürgen Grabbe (grabbe@amerikanistik.uni-halle.de).
