

Previous EAAS Rob Kroes Publication Award Winners

2023

Award winner: Elena Furlanetto for her manuscript “Ambiguity: Dis/Ambiguated Texts and Selves in North America: 1643-1883.”

Honorary mention: Francesco Bacci for his manuscript “Racial Conflicts in Academia: Black Campus Novels.”

2022

Award winner: Tuula Kolehmainen for her manuscript “‘Like Men They Stood’: Black Male Vulnerability in Fiction Written by African American Women.”

2021

Award winner: Giulia Crisanti for her manuscript “Europeans Are Lovin’ it? Coca Cola, McDonald’s, and the Responses to American Global Business in Italy and France, 1886-2015.”

2020

Award winner: Pia Wiegink for her manuscript “Reconfiguring the Nation: Transnationalism and Gender in Nineteenth-Century American Abolitionist Literature.”

Award winner: Martina Mastandrea for her manuscript “F. Scott Fitzgerald on Silent Film.”

2015

Award winner: Ahu Tanrisever for her manuscript “Fathers, Warriors, and Vigilantes: Post-Heroism and the U.S. Cultural Imaginary in the Twenty-First Century.”

2013

Award winner: Andrew S. Gross for his manuscript “The Pound Reaction: Liberalism and Lyricism in Midcentury American Literature.”

2011

Award winner: Frank Mehring for his manuscript “The Democratic Gap: Transcultural Confrontations of German Immigrants and the Promise of American Democracy.”

2009

Award winner: Astrid Franke for her manuscript “Pursue the Illusion: Problems of Public Poetry in America.”